

K KARU

A CURATED MARKETPLACE · WORKING TITLE

Karu.

Handcrafted in India. Collected worldwide.

Buy directly from India's master artisans — every piece verified, every story kept, and the majority of every sale paid straight to the hands that made it.

SHOWCASE · 2026 · MADE BY AC

We are India's artisans — selling direct to the world, for the first time on our own terms.

For generations, the people who make India's finest crafts have sold them for a fraction of their worth. Middlemen took the margin. Buyers across the world never even learned their names — and the traditions quietly died with the generation that held them.

Karu exists to reverse that. A curated house that carries the work of verified masters straight to collectors abroad — preserving the craft, naming the maker, and paying them what they have always deserved. Not an open marketplace. A gallery, with a conscience.

78%

of an average sale is paid directly to the artisan — printed transparently on every product page.

THE MAKERS

The people behind every piece

Not anonymous inventory — named masters, each with a village, a lineage, and a craft passed hand to hand for centuries.

IN FOCUS

Radha Devi Pal

Clay & terracotta deities · Krishnanagar, West Bengal

In the Ghurni quarter of Krishnanagar, Radha Devi shapes river clay into deities so lifelike that collectors say they seem to breathe.

41 years at the craft

Fifth generation of her family

Ghurni clay modelling

READ HER STORY →

Not competing with Amazon. Competing with art galleries.

01 Verified makers, never anonymous

Nobody can simply list. Every artisan is sought out, their workshop visited and documented, and each piece hand-selected before it reaches the gallery.

02 Fair pay, in the open

Between 70–80% of every sale goes directly to the maker — with the exact split shown on every page. No hidden fees, no middlemen taking a cut of the maker's name.

03 Provenance, guaranteed

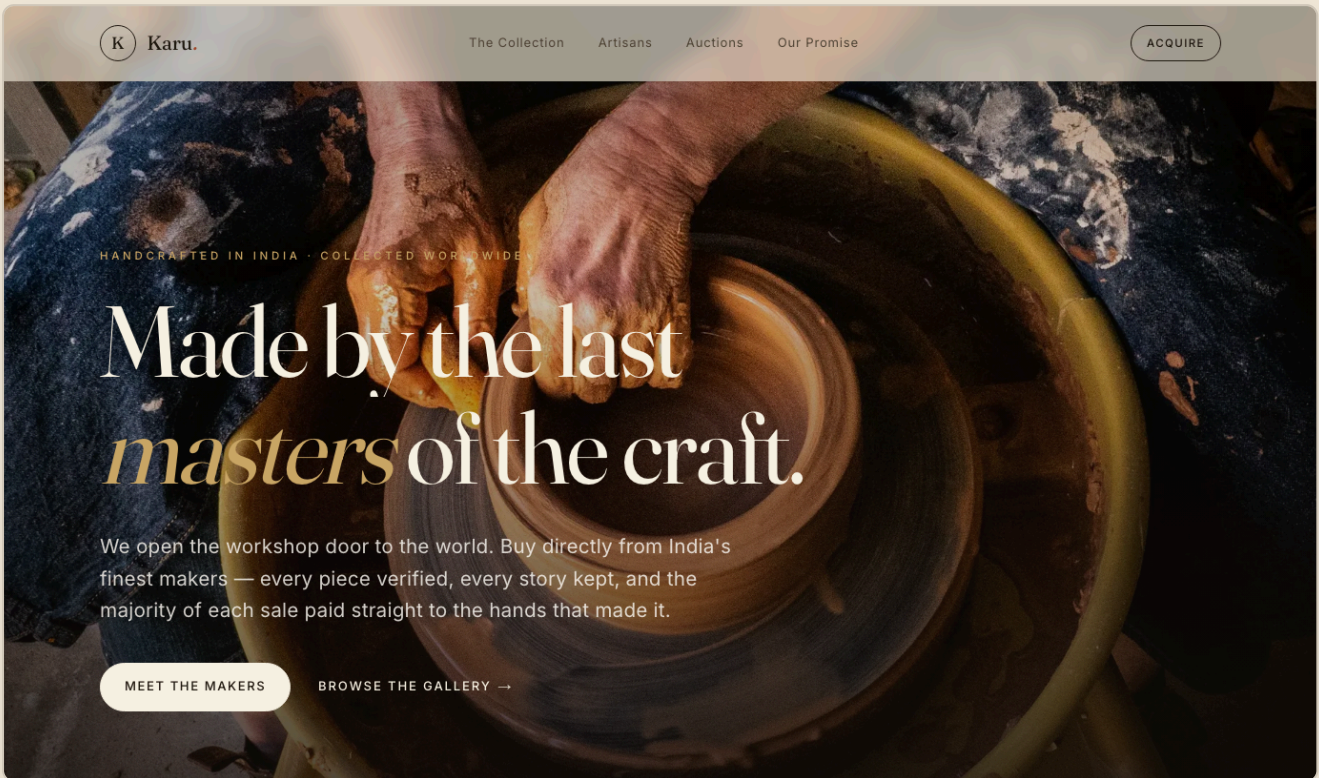

Every work ships with a digital certificate of authenticity: the maker, the materials, the date, the craft origin, and the maker's mark.

04 Real scarcity

One-of-one works, numbered editions, and small batches — and master pieces released through live auction. When a piece is collected, it is genuinely gone.

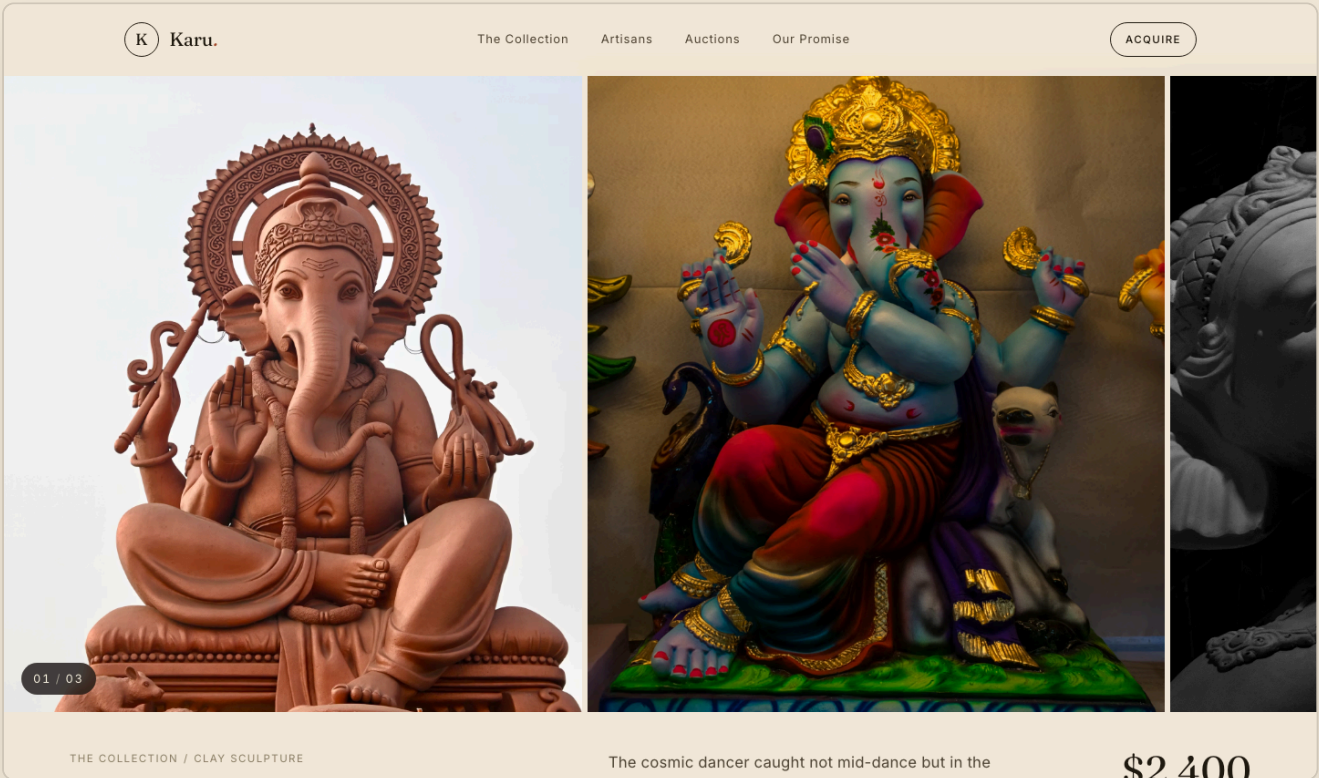

05 Effortless global delivery

Insured, museum-grade crating, customs and duties handled end to end, tracked to the door across 30+ countries. Collecting from anywhere, made simple.

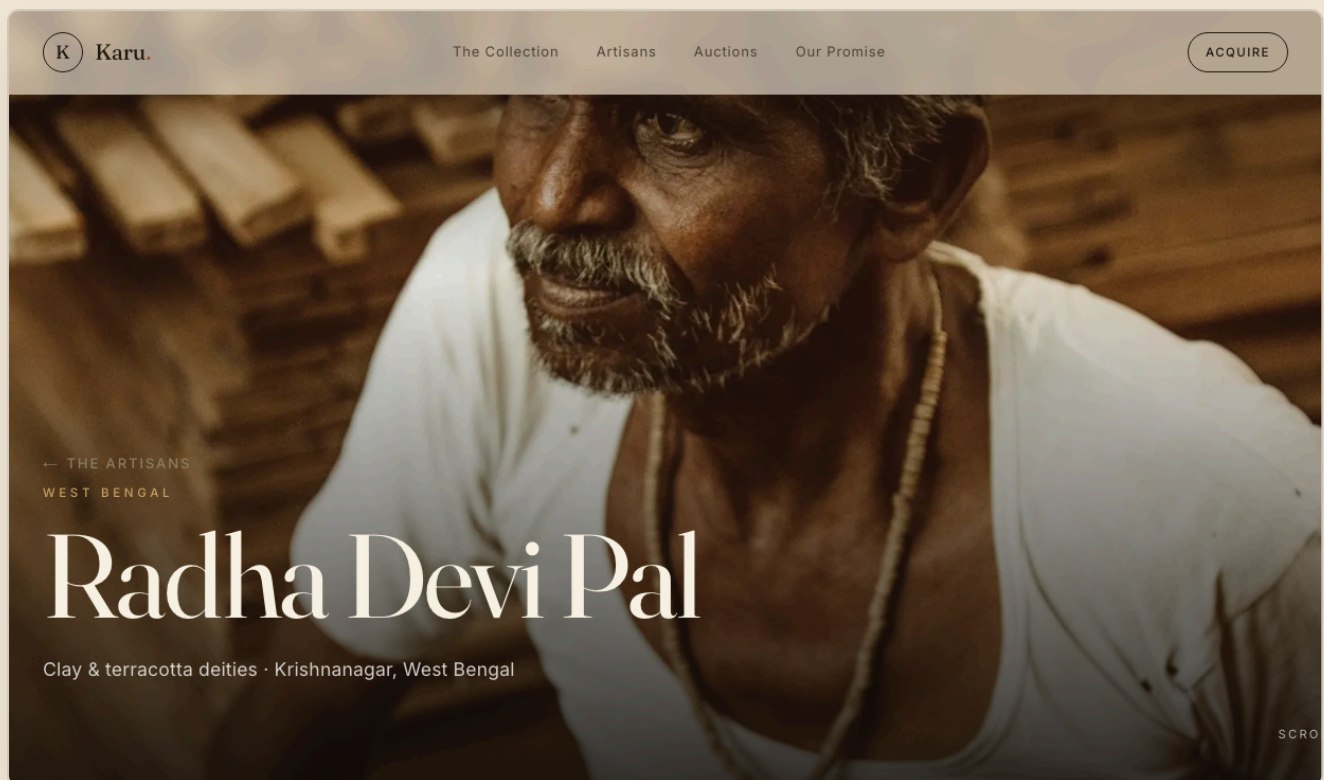

The landing — artisan-led

Opens on the maker's hands. Every scroll builds the case: who makes it, why it matters, how it reaches you.

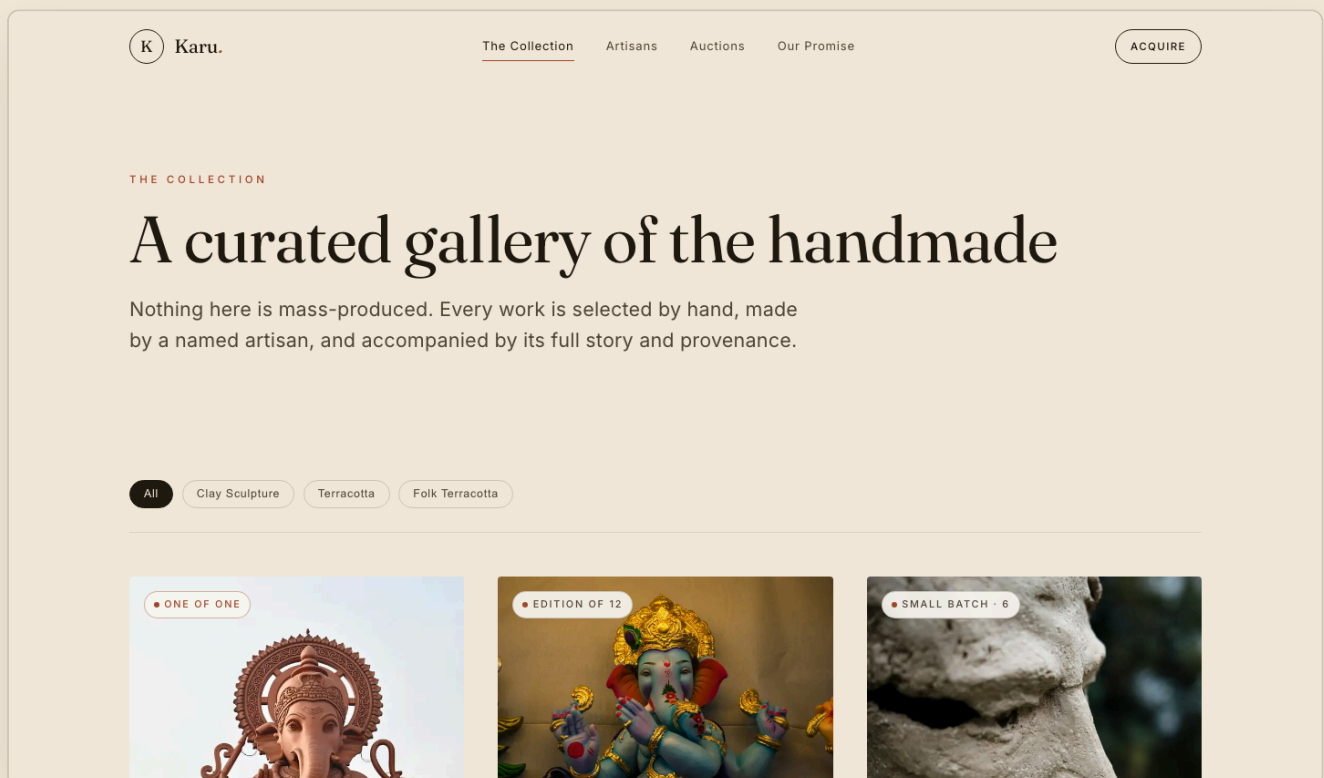

The product page

Full-bleed, gallery-grade imagery you scroll and zoom — then title, story, provenance and the maker's share.

The artisan profile

Each maker gets a cinematic page — their name, village, lineage, workshop, and the works available now.

The collection

A curated gallery, filterable by craft — clay, terracotta, folk — every piece singular and verified.

A curated house — where buying is an experience, and the maker is the point.

CURATED MARKETPLACE

Selected, not listed

Every artisan is hand-picked and every piece meets a single standard — would this belong in a serious collection? This protects quality, trust, and premium positioning.

REVENUE

70–80% to the maker

The platform takes only what keeps the house running. The split is transparent on every product page, so buyers always know exactly whose work their money supports.

LIVE AUCTIONS

Collectors set the value

Master works are released to live auction with a maker-set reserve. Because the artisan's share is fixed, every bid increases what they take home.

COMMISSIONS

Made only for you

Collectors can request bespoke work — a family deity, a memorial piece — matched to the right master, estimated, created, documented and shipped.

01

Discover

Browse by craft or maker; read the full story & provenance.

02

Acquire or bid

Buy at a fixed price or compete at live auction, in your currency.

03

We pack & insure

Museum-grade crating, fully insured, customs handled.

04

Delivered

Tracked to your door, certificate of authenticity in hand.

FROM INDIA TO THE WORLD

From a village workshop to your home — wherever in the world that is

Collectors

Acquiring authentic, singular pieces with real provenance.

Interior designers

Sourcing unique, story-rich decor for premium spaces.

Culture enthusiasts

Valuing heritage, craftsmanship, and ethical purchase.

Gift buyers

Looking for meaningful, one-of-a-kind gifts that carry a story.

Primary markets — United States · United Kingdom · Australia · Canada · Germany · France · Singapore.

STATUS — JUNE 2026

- › Front-end experience demo built & running (Next.js 16, React 19)
- › Live auction & revenue-split interfaces working (demo data)
- › Next: real backend, payments, artisan onboarding, logistics
- › Artisan-led landing, full-bleed product pages, profiles, auctions
- › Warm-earthen design system; private repository, ready to extend
- › Then: brand name & identity, deploy to a global audience

A movement to keep traditional crafts alive —
and the makers paid.